ARTICLE IX. Nominations and Elections

- Section 1. Regular elections will be held in the spring of odd numbered years.
- Section 2. In a regular election, a Nominating Committee chaired by the Immediate Past President, along with at least one representative from each state in the Region, when possible, with the approval of the Board of Directors, will present the Board of Directors with a slate of two (2) names for each elective office or Assembly Delegate position becoming vacant in any election year. In the event of a Nominating Committee Member accepting nomination for office, that member should recuse self from the committee and a new Committee Member shall be selected.
- Section 3. The proposed slate of candidates will be presented to the general membership at the first general business meeting of the annual Regional meeting prior to the election. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at that meeting.
- Section 4. Within 14 days following the Regional Conference during odd-numbered years, ballots will be mailed by the President-Elect to the voting members of the Region, allowing at least thirty (30) days from the postmarked date of the mailing for the ballots to be postmarked for return. Ballots will contain space for write-in candidates for each elective position.
- Section 5. A simple majority of the votes is necessary for election to office. Positions on the AMTA Assembly of Delegates and their alternates will be filled by rank ordering of votes until the required number of positions is filled. A rank order of Alternate Delegates will be maintained by the Regional Secretary.
- Section 6. In a special election, a nominating committee appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors presents the Board of Directors with a slate of names for each seat on the Board of Directors becoming vacant at the time of any special election. The Board of Directors must approve the slate of names by majority vote prior to submitting ballots to the membership. Ballots are to be mailed to all current professional members, to be returned by the date indicated on the ballot, which will be 31 days from the date the ballot is sent. Ballots contain space for write-in candidates for each elected office. Candidates elected into vacant positions serve the remainder of the term and can be nominated to run again for the next term.

ARTICLE X. Regional Publicity

- Section 1. The Regional Publicity committee will coordinate the public affairs, including yet not limited to the publication, website, social media, and solicitation for advertisements, of the region. It shall be chaired by the Editor and consist of a representative from each state in the region, when such representation is possible, the Website Administrator, and the Publicity Coordinator.

- Section 2. The name of the official Regional Publication shall be the Red River Valley (RRV).
- Section 3. The Editor, who will also edit and supervise the publication of RRV will be appointed by the President, with the approval of the Board of Directors, and shall have complete autonomy over editorial policy and content within guidelines approved by the Board of Directors. The Editor will be responsible for a) submitting a budget proposal to the Financial Advisory Committee; b) obtaining and managing funds related to the publication; and c) publication and dissemination of the newsletter.
- Section 4. The RRV will be published three (3) times per year on the website on the following dates: February 10th, June 10th and October 10th. Once the newsletter is placed on the website, a link to the publication will be emailed to the membership.
- Section 5. The Website Administrator will be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors, and shall have complete autonomy over editorial policy and content of the website within guidelines approved by the Board of Directors. The Website Administrator will be responsible for a) submitting a budget proposal to the Financial Advisory Committee; b) obtaining and managing funds related to the website; c) receive submissions from the membership, edit submissions when necessary and post submissions to the website.
- Section 6. The Publicity Coordinator will be appointed by the president with the approval of the Board of Directors, and shall have complete autonomy over communication and interaction with social networking sites on behalf of the region within guidelines approved by the Board of Directors. The Publicity Coordinator will be responsible for a) submitting a budget proposal to the Financial Advisory Committee; b) obtaining and managing funds related to the publicity; and c) maintaining communication with the treasurer and local publicity representative for the regional conference each year.

ARTICLE XI. Parliamentary Authority

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, will be the authority for all questions of Parliamentary procedure not covered by these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XII. Amendments

- Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended at any general membership business meeting held at the Annual Regional Conference by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the members present, with students receiving 1/3 vote. The proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to that membership at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting.
- Section 2. The Bylaws may be amended by a mail vote solicited from the total membership of the Region, the amendments having been submitted to that membership in writing at least four (4) weeks before the vote is due, as necessary for changing, adopting, or repealing an amendment, with students receiving one-third (1/3) vote.

ARTICLE XIII. Recall of Officers and Delegates

Section 1. Any elective officer of the Regional Board of Directors may be recalled by vote of the body. Such a recall vote will act to remove the individual as a member of the SWAMTA Board of Directors and as an officer.

Section 2. A recall election is held when a quorum of members and a quorum of Board members petitions in writing to the President of the Region for such a recall. Should the recall election involve the office of the President, the written petition should be directed to the President-Elect.

ARTICLE XIII. Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the organization, SWAMTA, the assets of the organization will revert to the AMTA National Office.
